Monsignor Celebrates Anniversaries

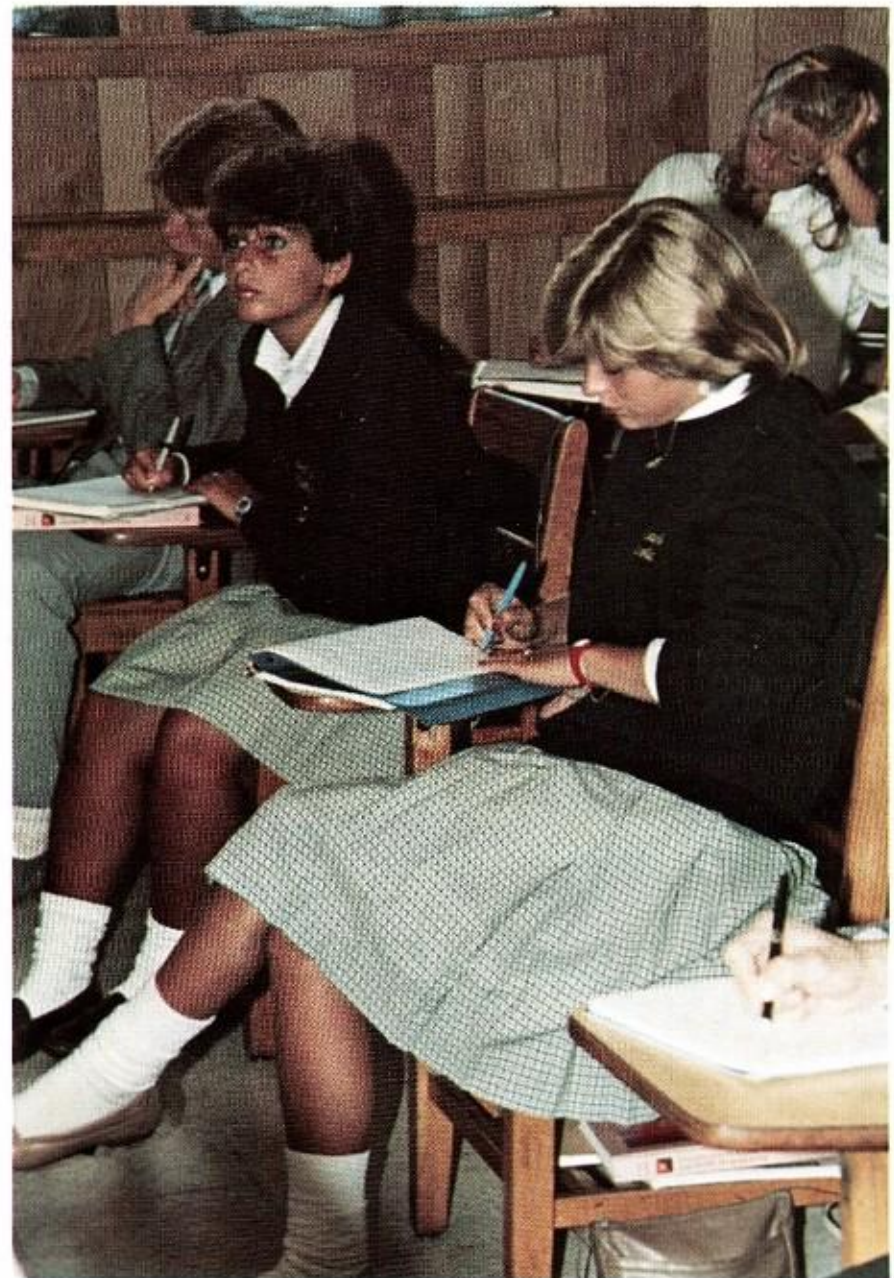

May 1985 marked a very special milestone in the life of Monsignor Valentino: the celebration of his thirty-fifth anniversary in priesthood. The year also commemorated his tenth year serving as Monsignor at Saint James Parish in Red Bank. Monsignor Valentino is a diligent worker who puts forth strong efforts to make Saint James Parish a great one. Aside from his parish duties, Monsignor willingly devotes great amounts of time and energy to Red Bank Catholic High School, Saint James Grammar School, and the Parent Teacher Organization. A special relationship exists between Monsignor and the students, and the faculty of Red Bank Catholic. In addition to the numerous contributions which he has already made to Red Bank Catholic, Monsignor has many future plans for our high school. A few plans relating to the near future include the construction of a sports complex and a new library. We would like to congratulate and thank Monsignor Valentino for his years of devoted service to God, to his parish, and to Red Bank Catholic High School.

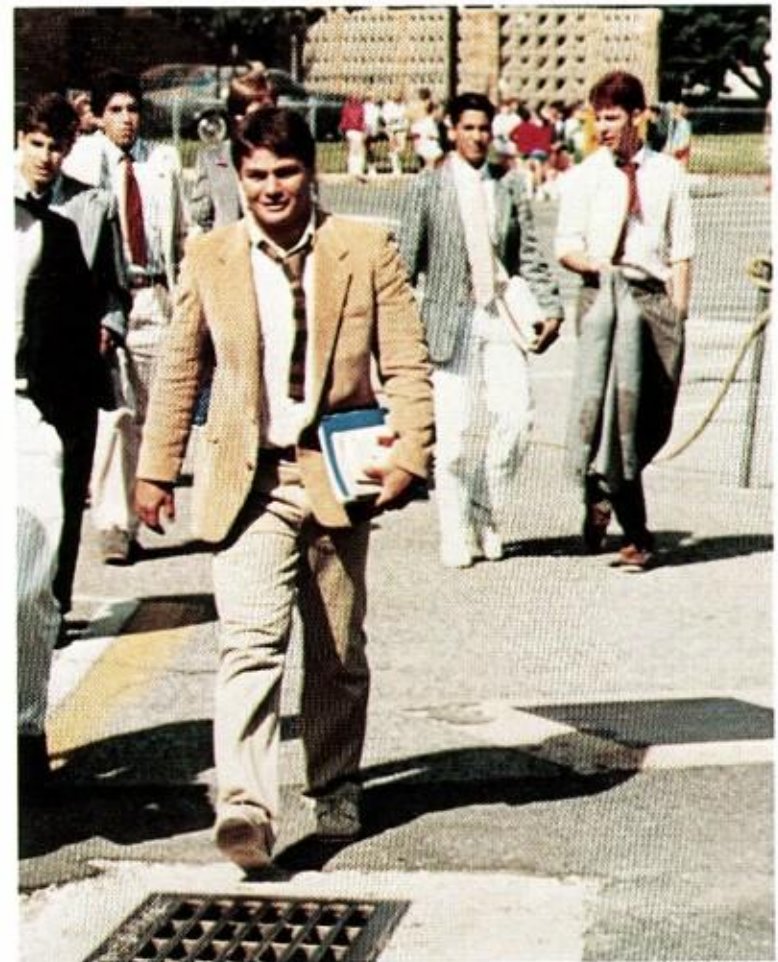

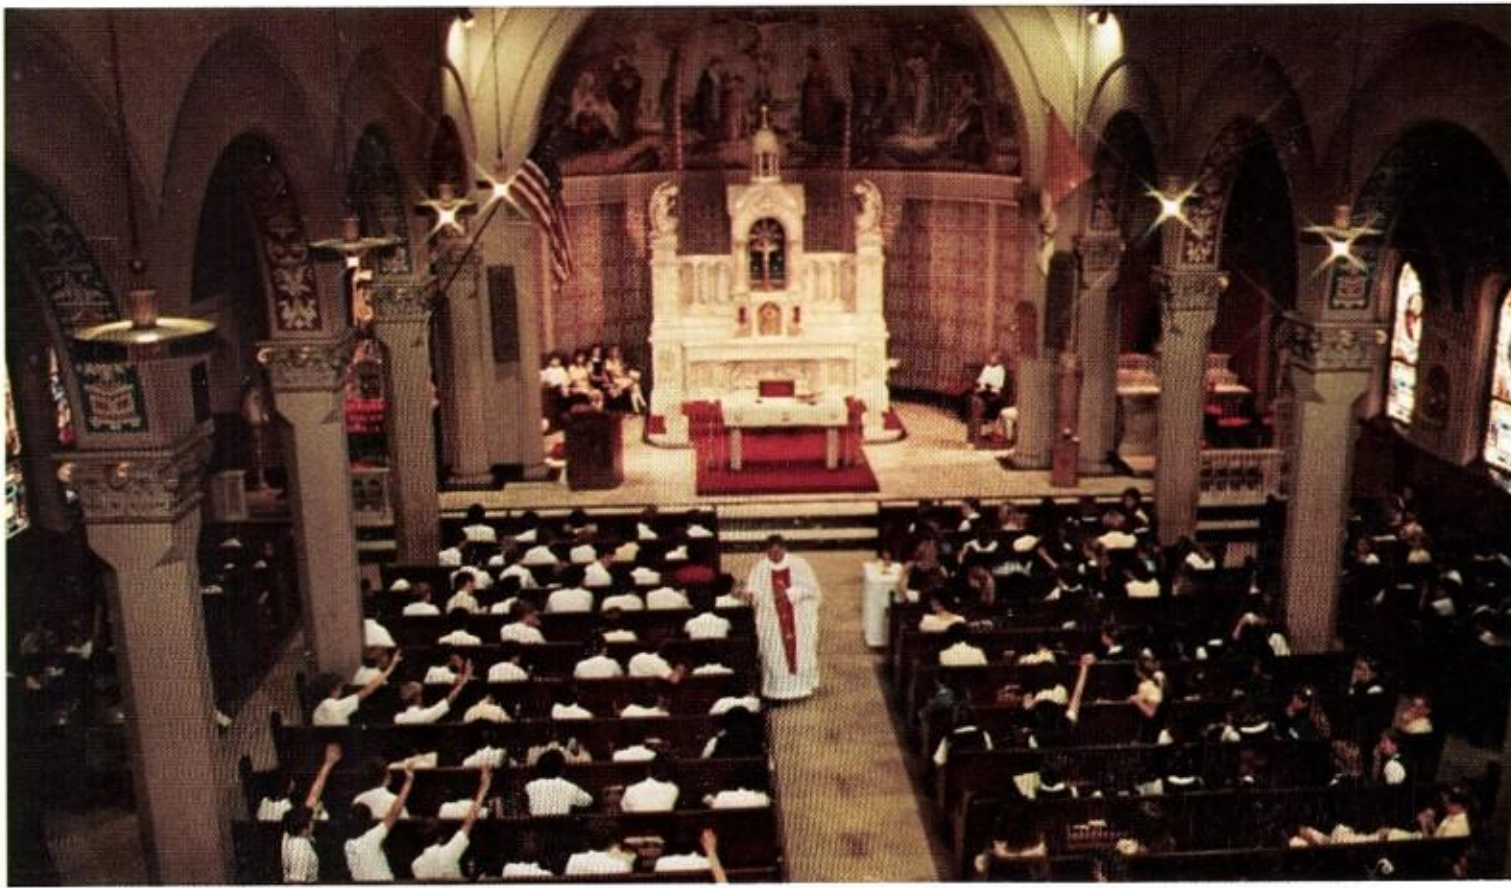

INVESTMENTS

Each Moment We Spend Is An Investment in the Next

The past four years at Red Bank Catholic have shown much profit, whether in short term dividends, such as a Homecoming Victory, or long term benefits such as our high school diplomas.

Each Casey invested his time and energy differently and in assessing our capital gains, each will find his different. Surely the athlete's aims and objectives differed from those of the total scholar. However diverse in our interests, we all hold the esteem the common bonds of our faith, our friendship, and our fun! We learned that through individuality we can better the whole.

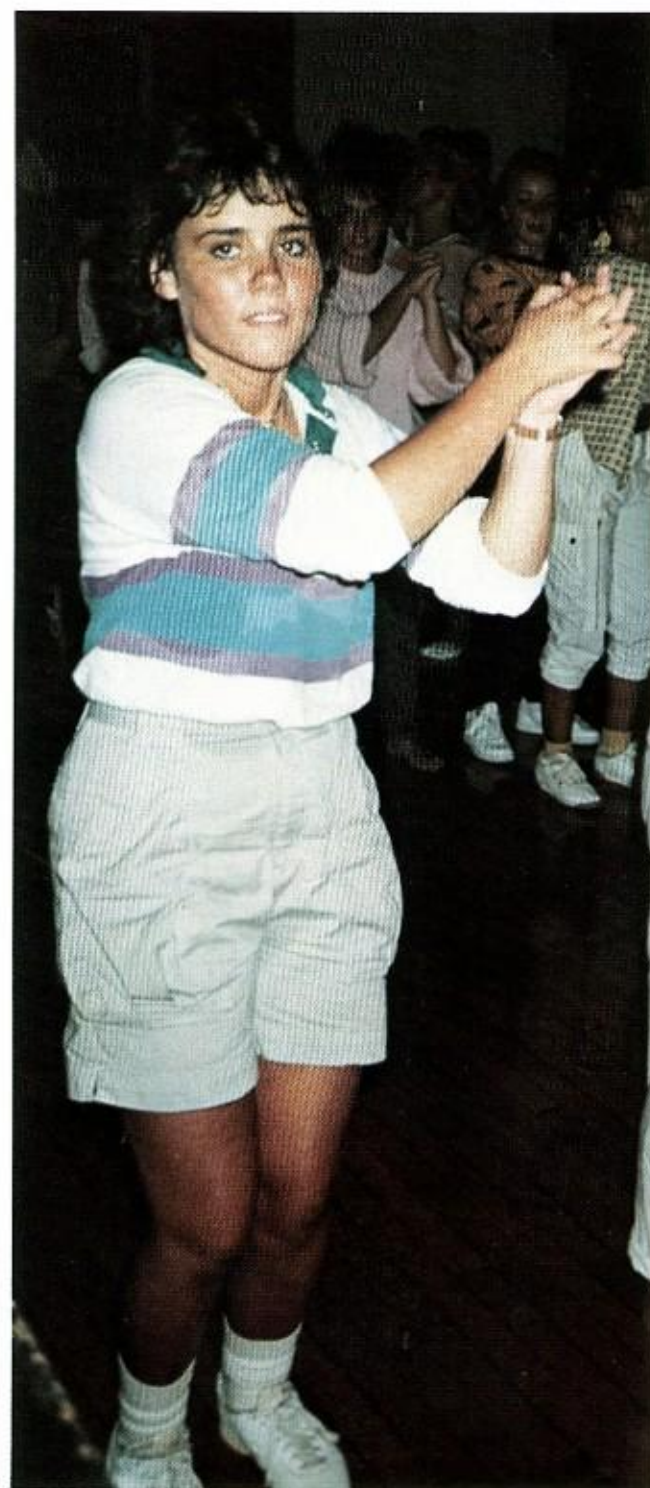

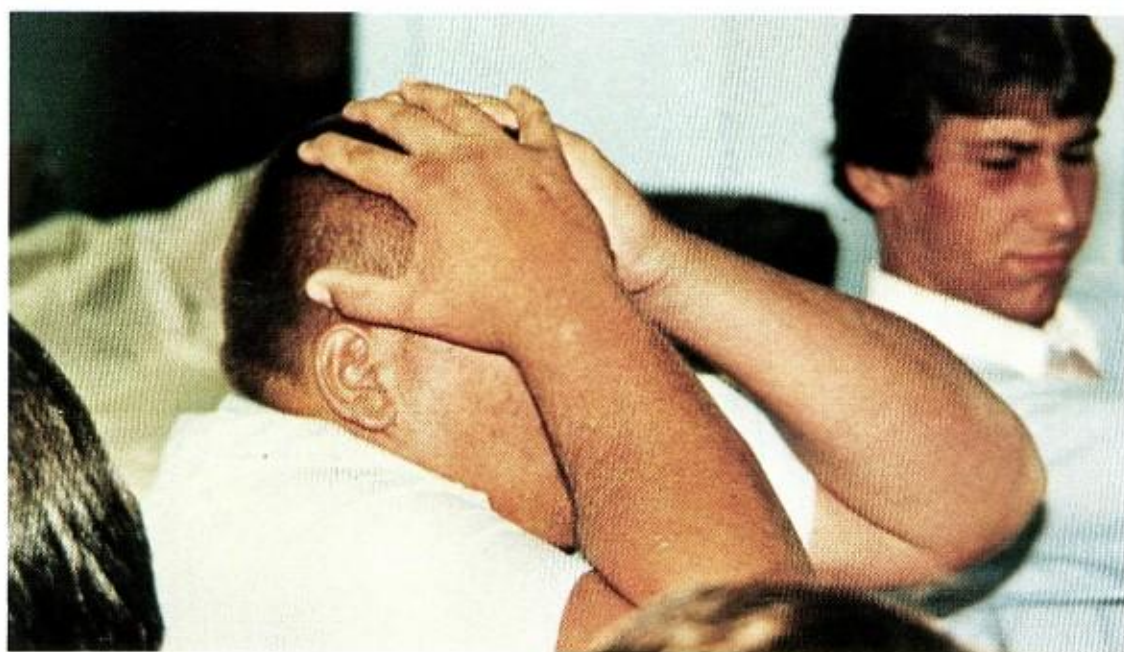

Cooperation between faculty and students yielded high earnings not only scholastically but socially as well. This was exemplified by such successes as the "RBC for Africa" dance marathon.

Togetherness taught us that time is the most valuable commodity we possess. Students, parents and teachers alike, we are all shareholders in the future.

Not only have we grown in the four years, but our investments at Red Bank Catholic will continue to earn interest as they mature year after year.

The Casey Look

"Goodness is the only investment that never fails."

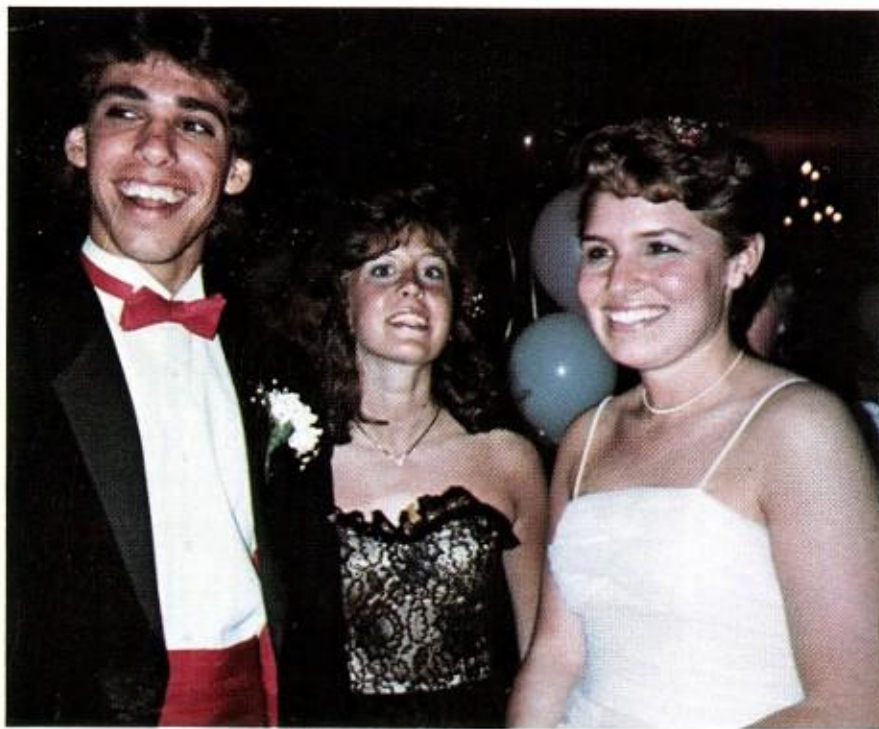

Thoreau

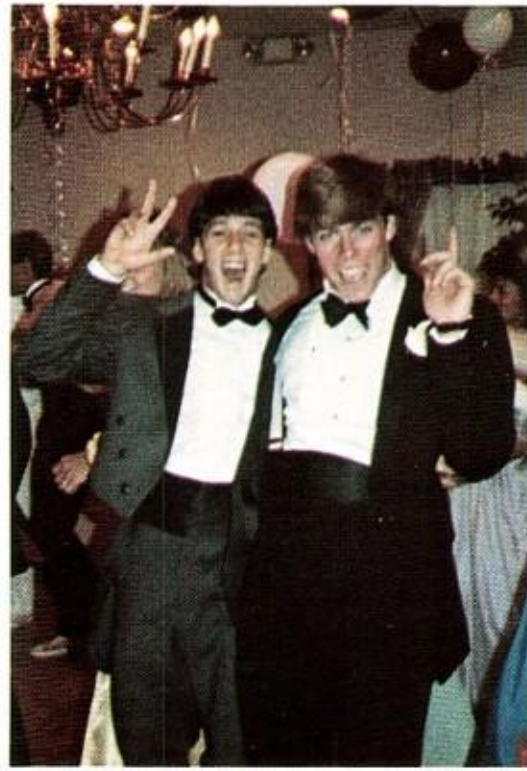

"You're the Inspiration"

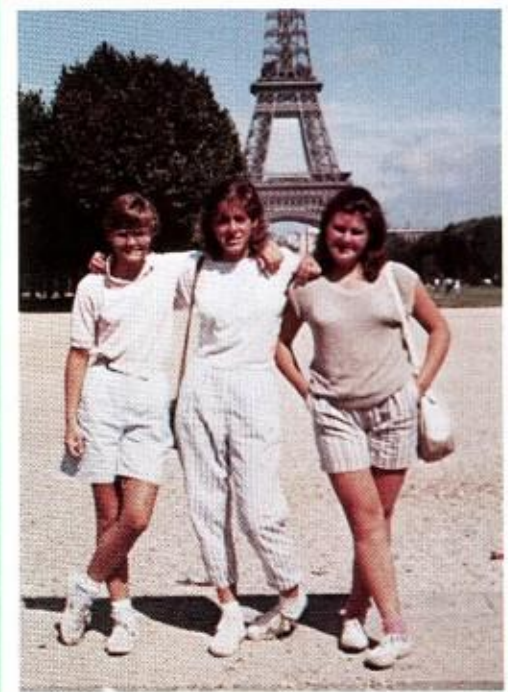

On the evening of May 3, 1985 the Junior Class of Red Bank Catholic stormed the Battleground Country Club in Freehold. Arriving in elegant gowns and debonair tuxedos, it was hard to believe we were only juniors in high school. The minute the music began to play, our secret was out, and our youth shown through. The dancing ceased only once for the crowning of our king, John Keegan, and our queen, Margaret Marrin.

Thanks to the cooperation among the Student Council, the Administration, and all who attended, the evening was a total success. The Junior Prom of 1985 gave us a memory we will never forget.

Caseys Around the World

Accompanied by five daring chaperones — Miss Bauer, Mrs. DeRoos, Miss Gerlock, Mrs. Griffin and Mrs. Senerchia, nearly 60 RBC students traveled abroad. RBC was represented in 13 cities in 8 different European countries.

The travelers experienced various native customs in the countries they visited. The Caseys learned to accept the differences in each country and realized that, "It's culture!" On one point all Casey travelers would agree, "Good company on a journey makes the way seem so much shorter."

Memories

Mrs. Senerchia — "Wanna' buy a duck?" . . . "Be vewy, vewy, quiet . . . We're huntin' wabbits." . . . "Group! Group!" .. Jonathan.

Mrs. DeRoos — Dusseldorf . . . "Sweeevelton" . . . "Uwe in '88!" . . . "Oooh beautiful." . . . "Bing, Bang, Boyng, Pow!" . . . Moa.

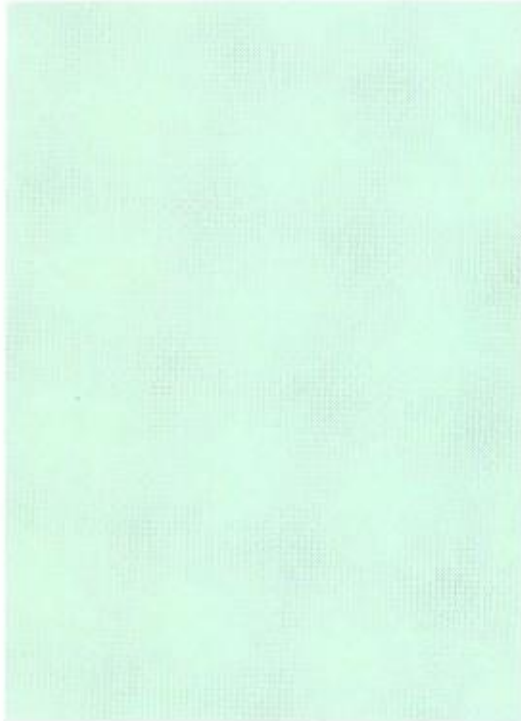

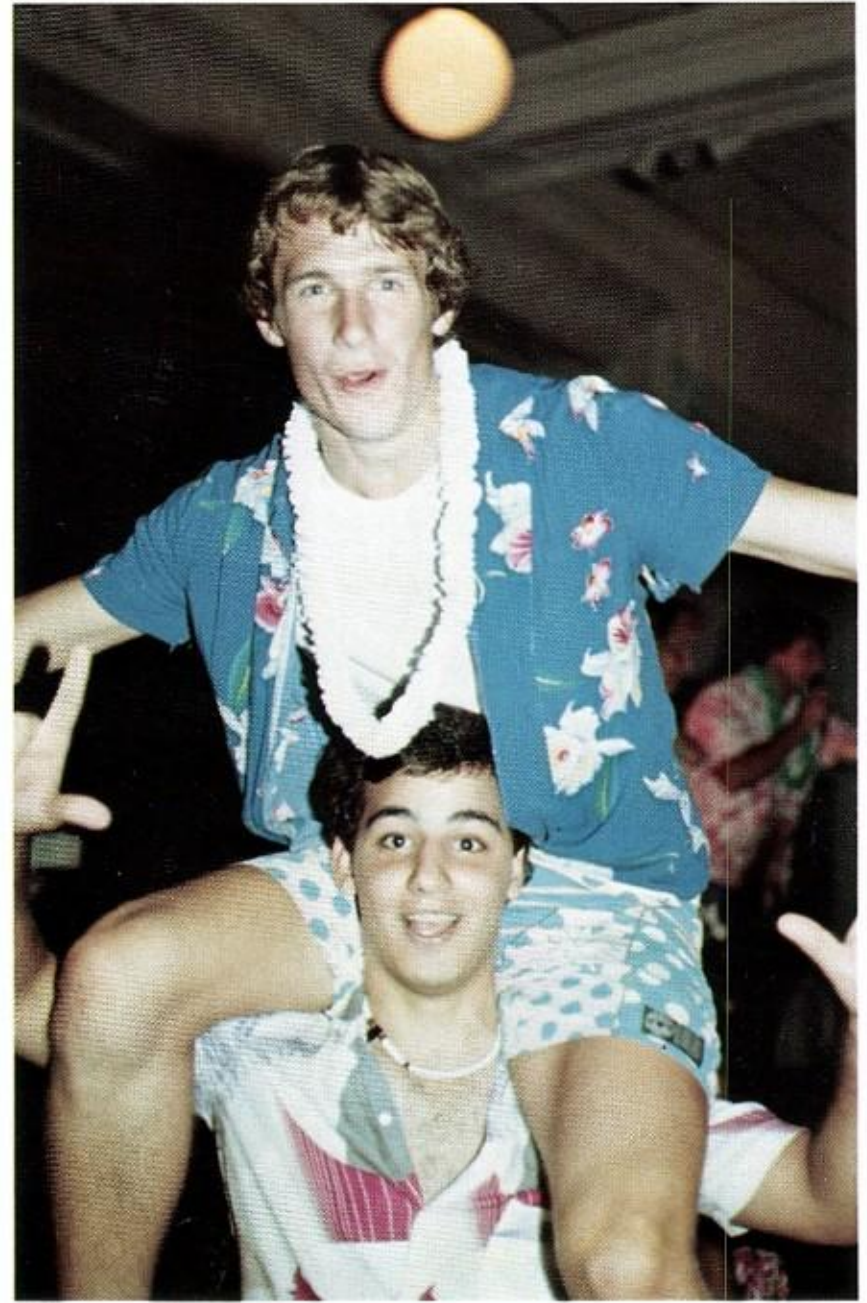

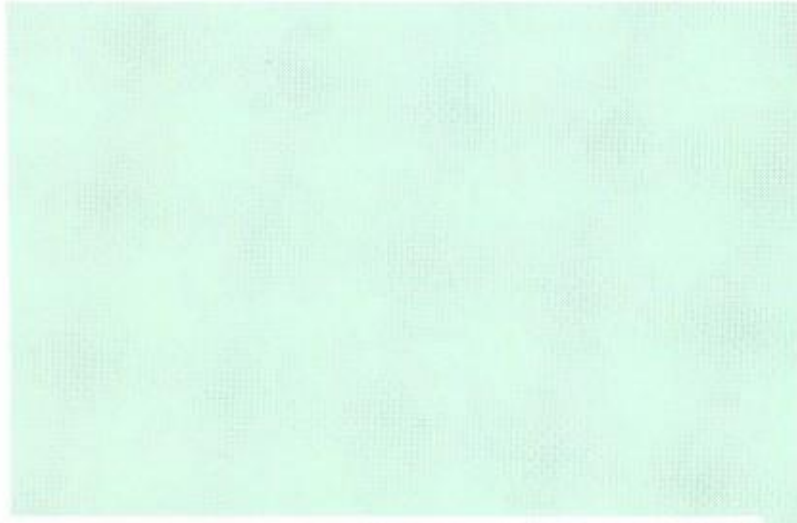

Miss Bauer — Easter '85 . . . London . . . Paris . . . "Where's our courier? . . . Duncan 'Heinz" . . . Gwek Check.

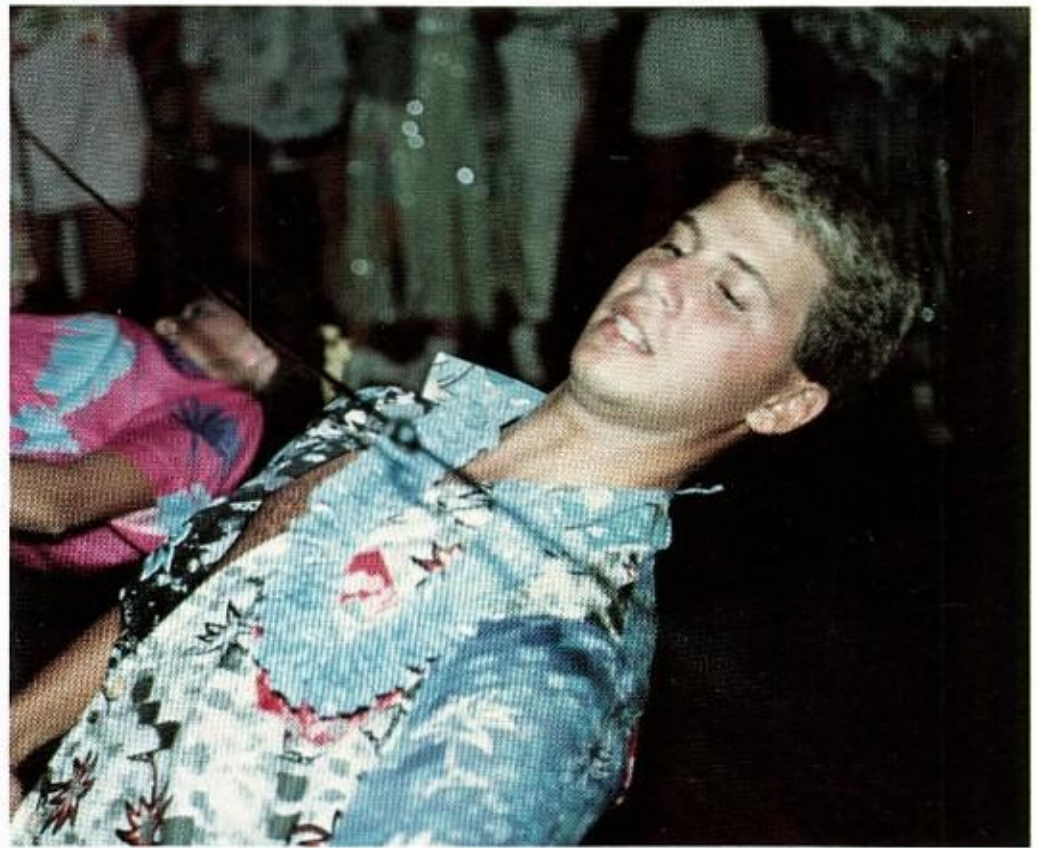

Mrs. Griffin — The boat . . . Alexander . . . "Cyndi Lauper" . . . The Flems . . . "He looks like a frog!" . . . "You need windshield wipers" . . . "Alex wants to dance with Carrington!"

Miss Gerlock — Easter 1985 . . . London . . . Paris . . . Madrid

ALOHA SENIORS!

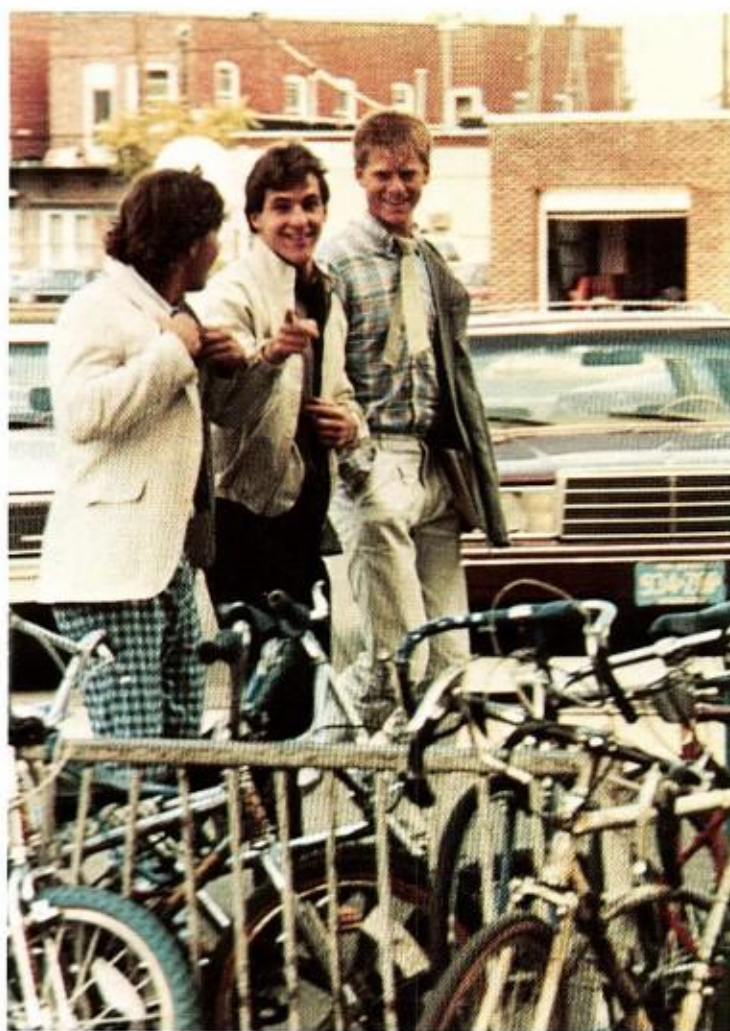

On the evening of September 20, R.B.C. Seniors shed their green and plaid and donned their floral print. Grass skirts and colorful leis speckled the B.S.A. at what has now become the annual Senior Luau. Beach Boys' music and surfing paraphernalia created an atmosphere that truly was Hawaiian. Laughter, dancing, and shouting abounded as Tom Williams and Alida Coo swept away first prize in the costume contest. The back-bending limbo dance created an unprecedented comradery amongst all who participated. A great way to begin the year, the 1985 luau was a successful event, and is sure to continue in the years to come.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The Freshman Class of 1989 was extremely fortunate to be led by the likes of their freshman student council. President Lisa Abbatiello, Vice-President Greg O'Keefe, Secretary/Treasurer L. Amechangelo and Committee Chairperson Casey Taylor, displayed excellent leadership qualities all year. With the support and aid of the freshman moderator, Mrs. Joan Edmonds, they conducted many successful events including the record-breaking can-food drive for the Thanksgiving holiday. It is indeed a difficult task to organize events and produce effective results with a large, new class of freshmen; however, this council came through with flying colors and guided their class through an important year.

Activities

Securing

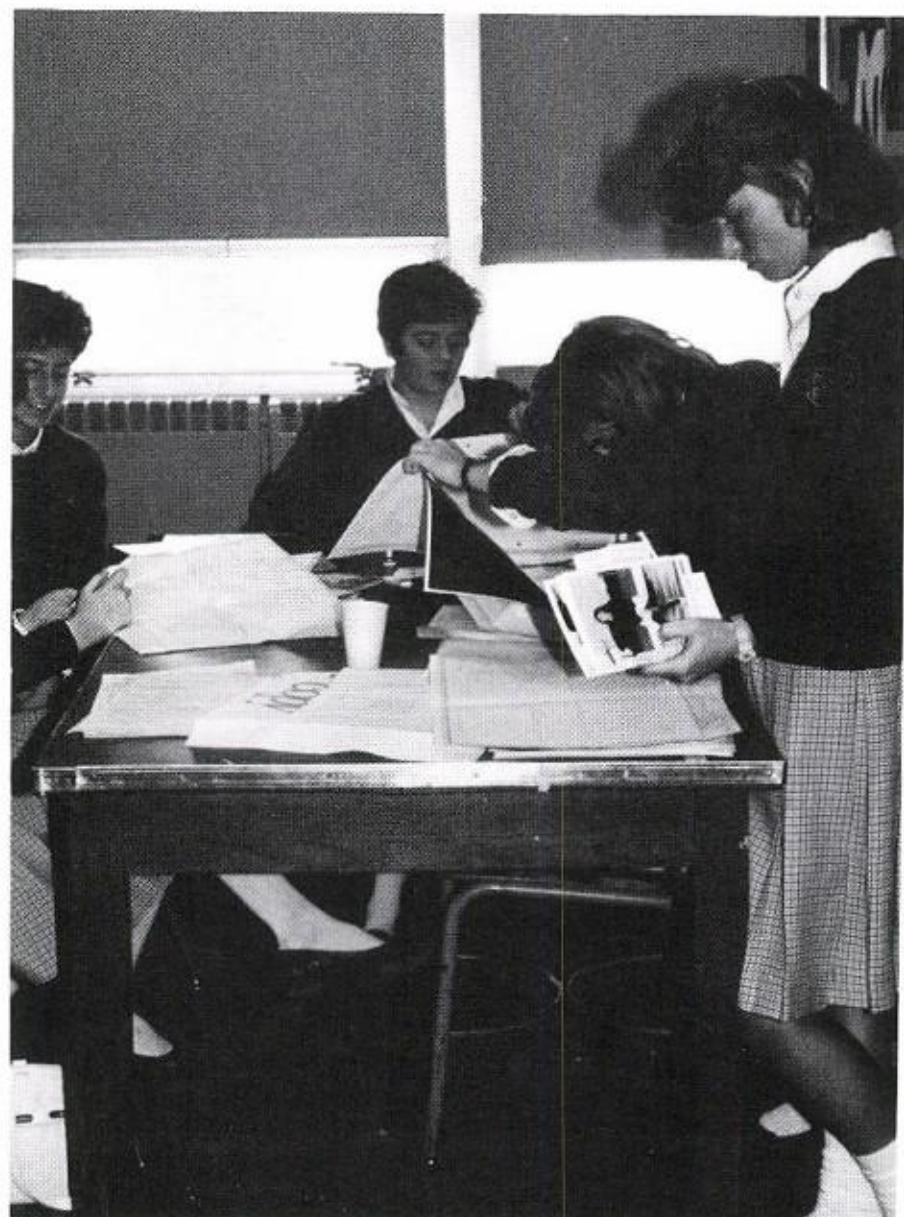

Capturing the memories of an entire year takes many long hours of hard work and dedication. The 1985-1986 Yearbook Staff, supervised by Mrs. Scerbo, met this challenge. Along with editors-in-chief Susan Walsh and Francie Ciesla, the yearbook staff and photographers transformed blank white pages into a representation of a full school year at Red Bank Catholic.

Yearbook Editors: (BR) S. Cheyne, C. Holzer, M. Griffin, K. O'Bosky, P. Carlo, T. Krugh, P. Newell, K. Sullivan, J. Larkin, C. Zenakis (FR) T. Tyrell, S. Walsh, K. Hall.

Signpost

The 1985-86 Signpost staff provides their fellow Caseys with the latest scoop regarding the RBC community.

The staff's accomplishments include placing second in the Quill and Scroll division of the International Journalistic Society.

Guided by Sister Joanmarie and by editor-in-chief Shannon Kaeli, this year's staff is definitely a success by any standard.

Investing in Life

Students Against Drunk Driving, moderated by Mr. Baglivio, is a club designed to spread the awareness of the dangers of drinking and driving among students and adults. Officers Bill Leon, Pam Cerchio, Deidre Stamos and Leigh Doninger have planned an assembly during the prom season with Hector DeVall as the guest speaker. SADD also set up a booth, which featured facts about drinking and driving, in December 1985 at the Monmouth Mall.

Helping Hands

Although many of us are Catholic, sometimes we may not live up to our Christian duties.

Members of the L.I.F.E. Club choose to truly give of themselves in activities such as food drives for the poor and gifts for the lonely.

The members of L.I.F.E., under the direction of Sister Regina, set an example for other members of the R.B.C. community.

Members of the CPR/First Aid Club dedicate many hours in order to learn the various lifesaving techniques. After learning the necessary procedures in the event of an emergency, these students, under the supervision of Mr. Baglivio, receive a certificate of the completion of the course.

Creative Caseys

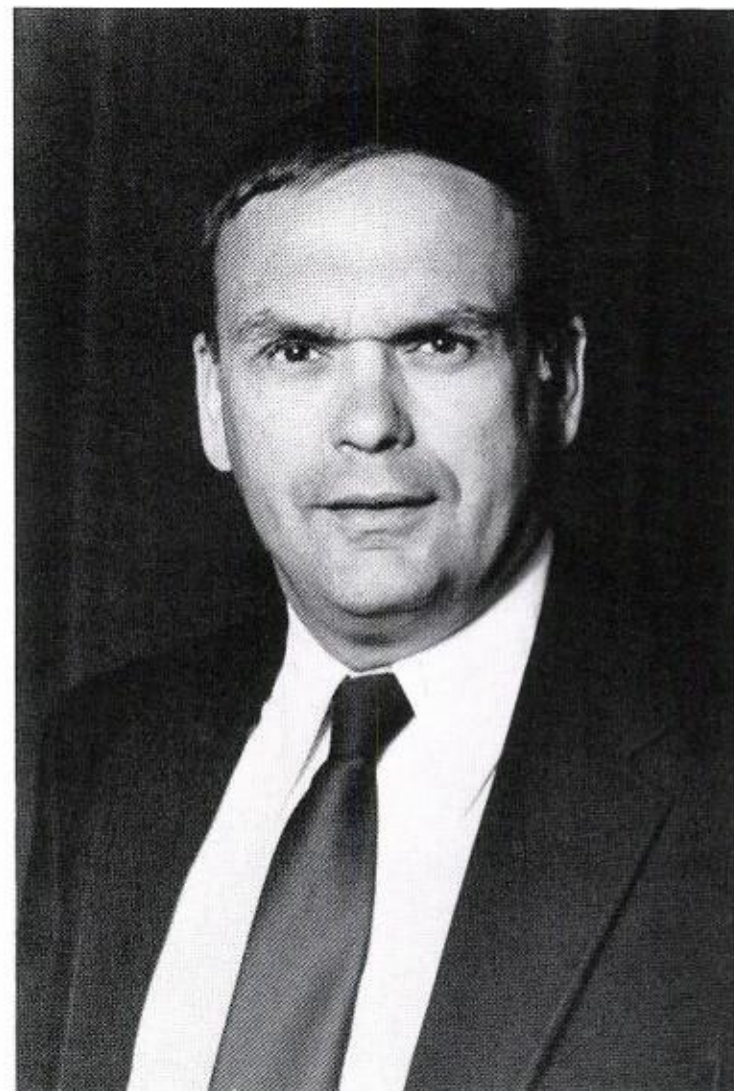

Art Services, under the direction of Mrs. Kennedy, provides the Casey community with their creative talents by taking on endeavors of artistic value for the school. The members of this club draw attention to important events of the school through their art work by making posters, program covers, and handouts.

The Forensics Team, moderated by Miss King and Miss Bauer, has done well in the past, and this year has been no exception. With Meg Andrews as President and Francie Centofante as Vice-President, this year's team has become very strong. The team has competed in tournaments in Philadelphia and Baltimore. Much time has been invested in the tournaments, which take place from 8AM to 5PM. Congratulations on an outstanding year.

Intramural Interaction

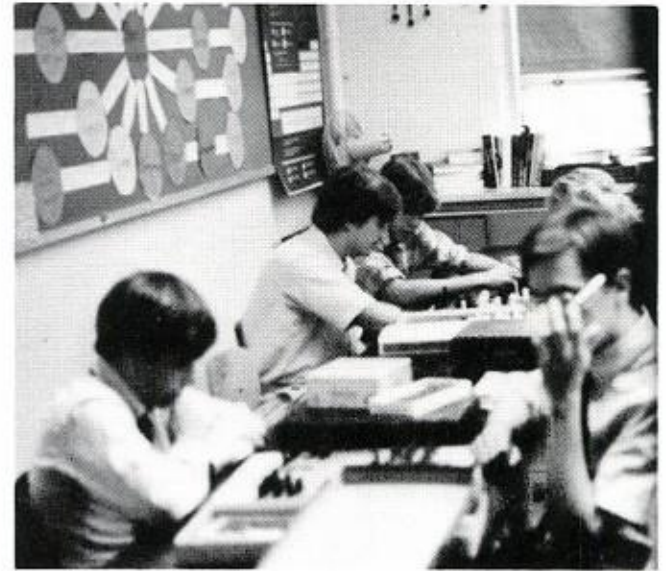

Under Mr. Cross' guidance, the members of the Sports Appreciation Club meet during activity periods for some intramural action. Both the finer points of basketball and baseball are discussed. Participants need not be varsity letter winners. Consequently, improvement on a personal level is stressed.

Songs & Strategies

The talented Caseys sing their hearts out in the Chorus and Glee Club, directed by Mr. Bender. Working in perfect harmony, these girls perform in both the Christmas and Spring Concerts, as well as, in masses and graduation exercises.

The Game Club, moderated by Mr. Soviero and Mr. Valente, consists of a group of students who wish to sharpen their game playing skills. It allows the members to have an enjoyable break during the course of a school day, while also allowing them to increase their concentration and other mental skills.

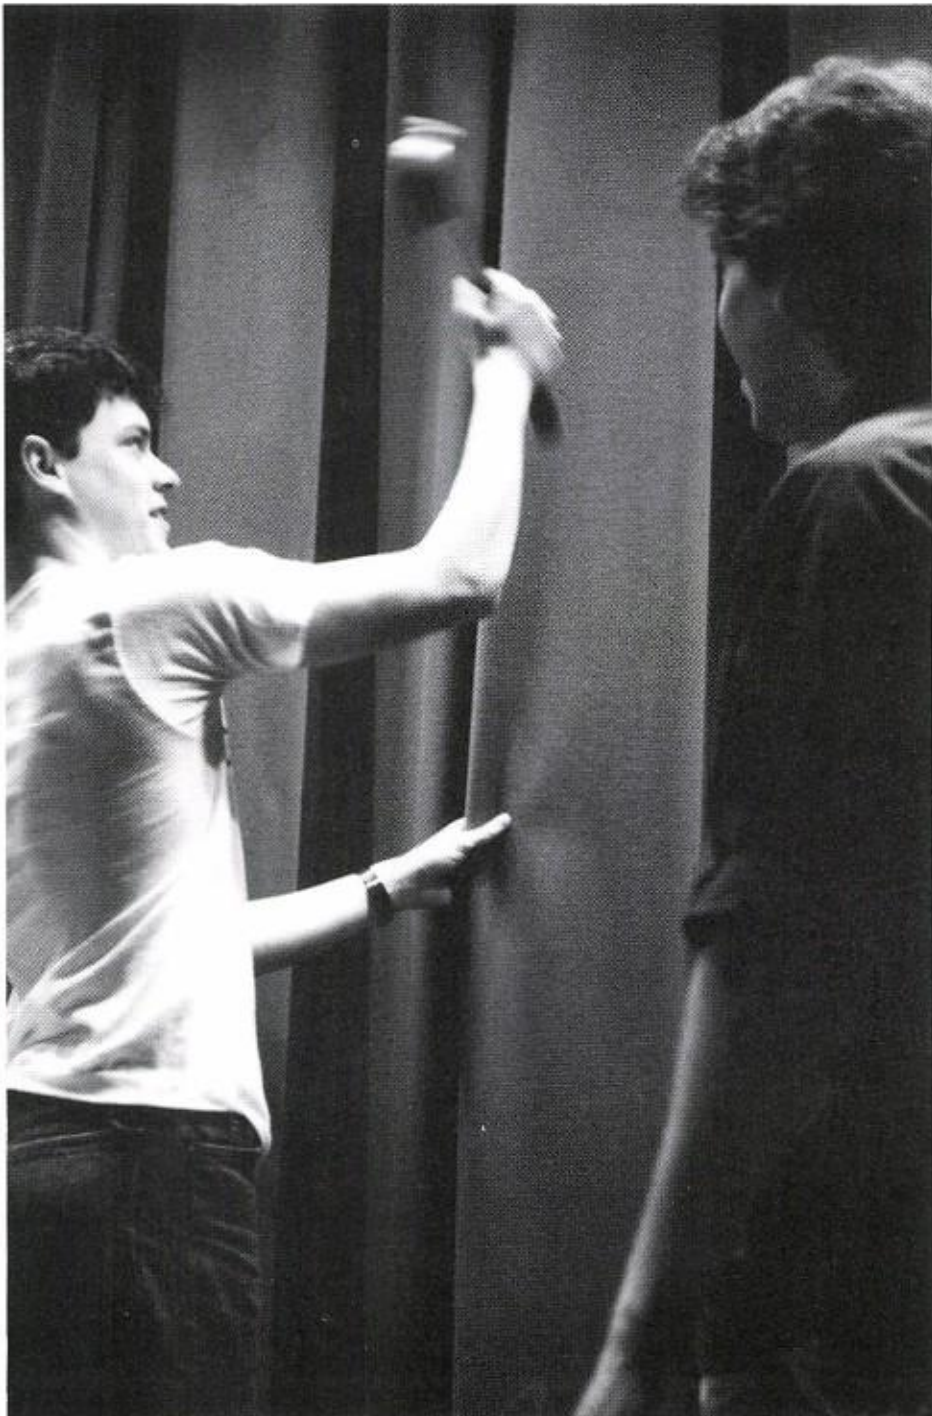

Celebrities

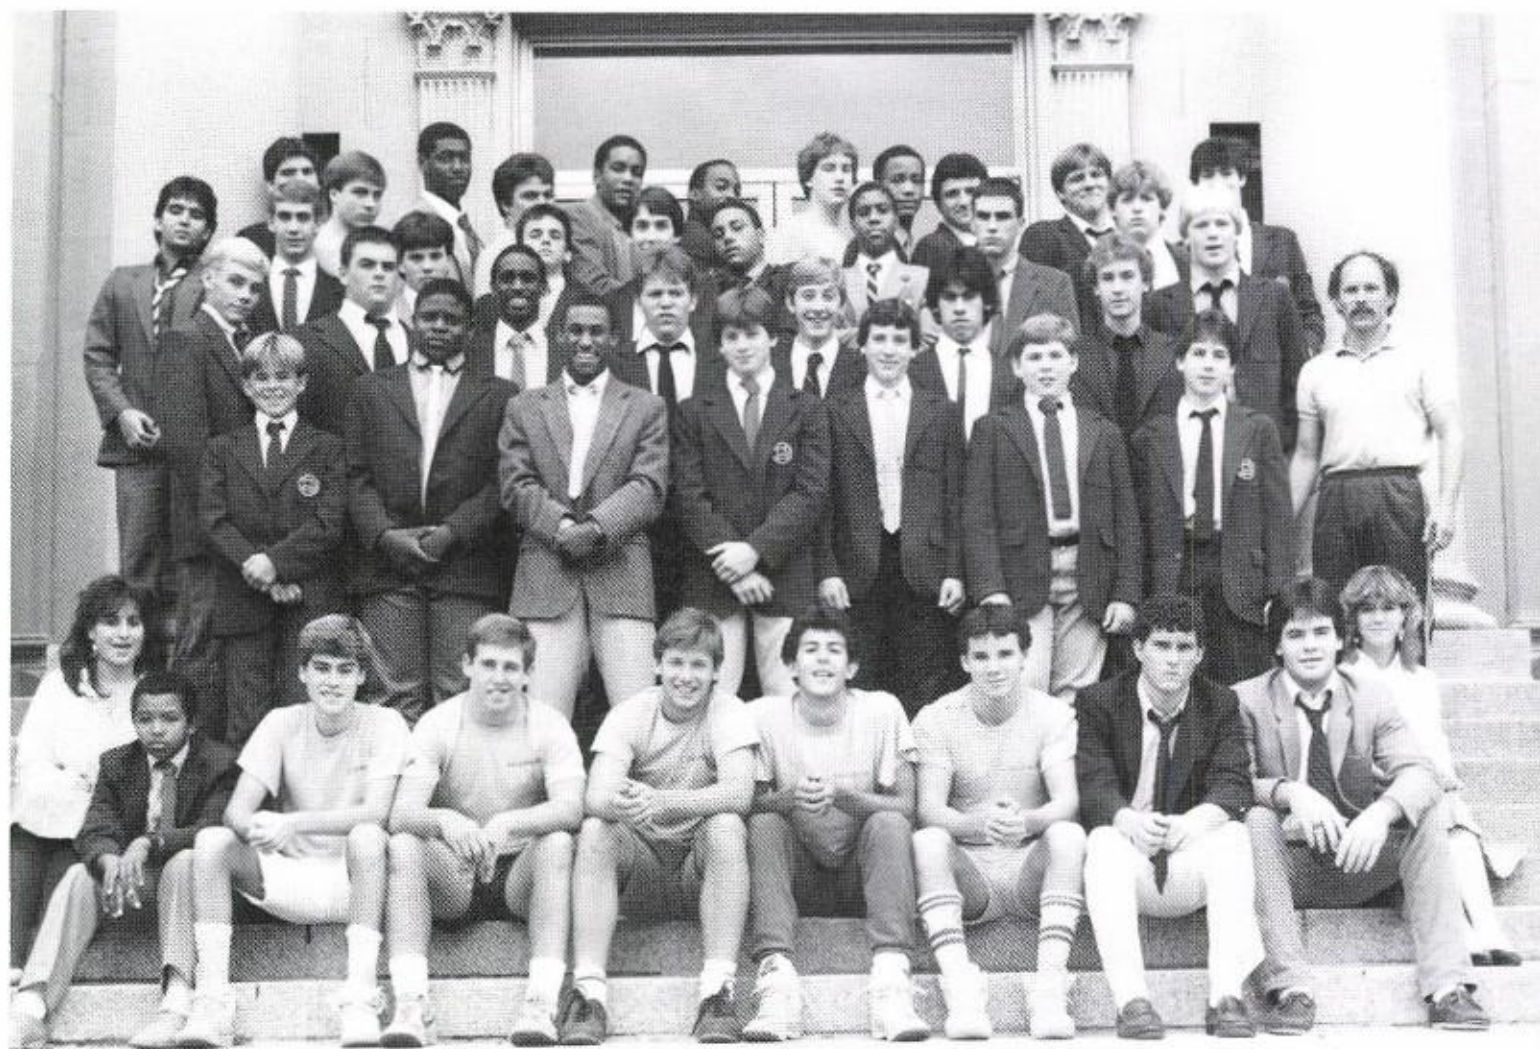

Of Thee I Sing, the 1985-86 School Play is a 1930's George Gershwin musical comedy. Of Thee I Sing takes a satirical look at the presidential election by poking fun at politicians running a campaign based on love and by holding a beauty contest to find the President's wife-to-be. The cast is directed by Mr. William Coyle who is assisted by Miss Gretchen Bauer. The members of the cast spend up to 18 hours a week singing and dancing to tunes such as "Of thee I Sing" and "Love is Sweeping." This year's stars included Francie Centofante as Mary Turner and Matt Devine as John Wintergreen. Special thanks go to Mr. Tom Phillips and his dedicated stage crew for their hard work building the set.

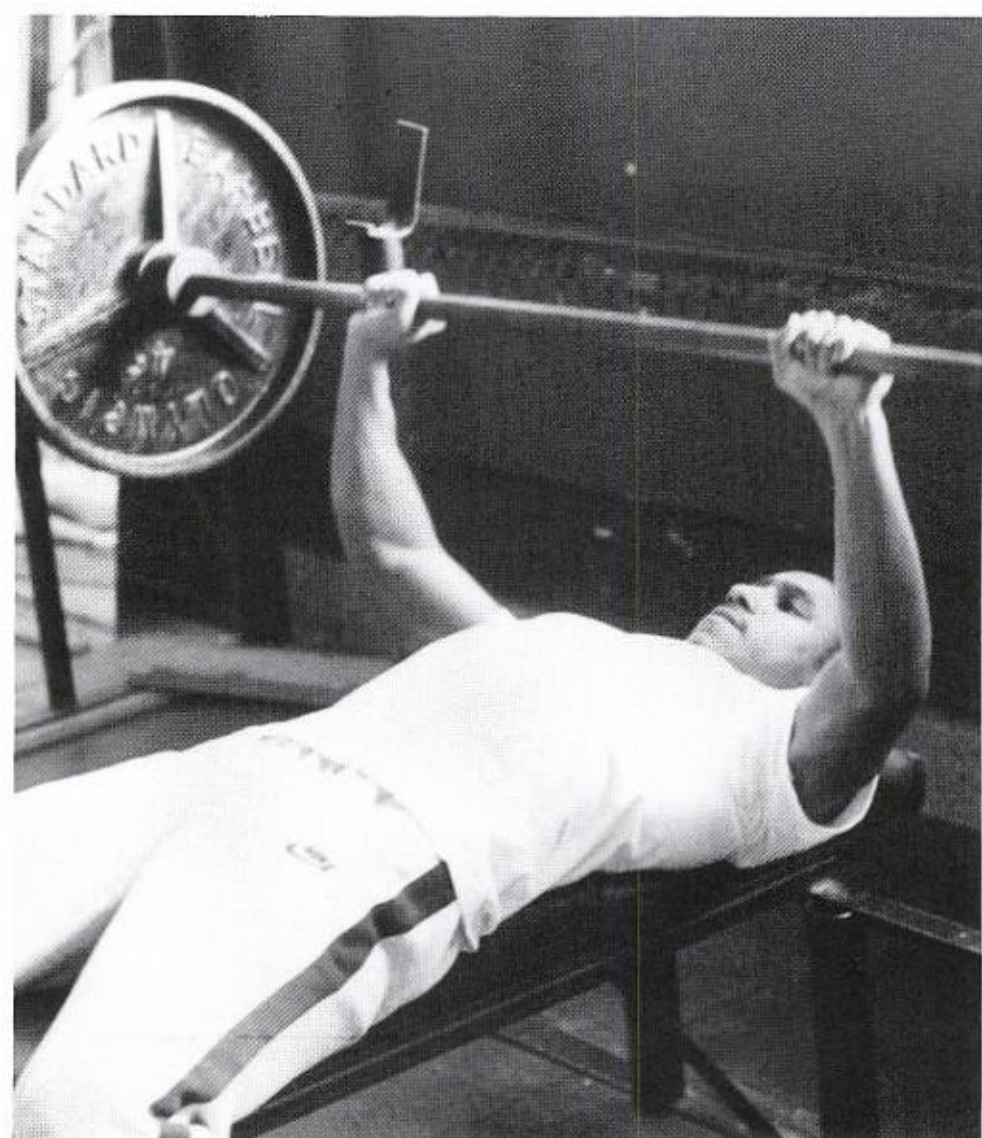

Of Tomorrow

Toning and

Hefty Caseys all pulling together make up the Weight Training Club. With personal guidance from Mr. Mautner, these students keep physically fit by using the newly renovated facilities of the RBC universal and power weight rooms outside of their required physical education classes. The Weight Training Club is open to all RBC Muscle MEN and WOMEN.

Tuning Up

The Concert and Jazz Bands, under the guidance of Mr. Bender, display enthusiastic support for RBC. They initiate and produce much of our school spirit. The bands perform in the annual Christmas show and Spring Concert giving the members the opportunity to display their talents, as well as, giving the audience the chance to enjoy the band's music.

Hitting the Slopes

Probably the most popular club in the school, the Ski Club promises fun and recreation for all of its members. The Ski Club, under the direction of Mr. Montenaro, travels in search of the ultimate skiing conditions. Both day and night trips to areas such as Camelback and Gore Mountain are included in the itinerary this year. These trips provide inexperienced skiers the chance to learn, and they provide the more experienced skiers with the chance to perfect (and perhaps show off) their technique.

Meeting the Challenge

Headed by Mr. Altier, the R.B.C. Stock Market Club, plays the stock market game. The game is completely computerized, and each team is given an imaginary sum of 100,000 dollars. The "money" is then invested in specific stocks. The team follows the stock market according to the New York Stock Exchange and the American Stock Exchange. Computerized printouts show the amount of money either gained or lost, as well as, the team's ranking according to its net earnings.

The Tennis Challenge Ladder, under the guidance of Mr. Marley, allows for the development of tennis ability of those students who wish to play. The members of this club have a schedule of whom they are to play and they also keep a running tab on the wins and the losses.

Jim Quirk, Jim Sciortino, Tim Soos, and John Little were nominees for the Scholar Athlete Award, given by the Red Bank Register. Also, Damien Zuzi made First Team All-County. Other Outstanding players were juniors Rich Caldwell and Al Golden.

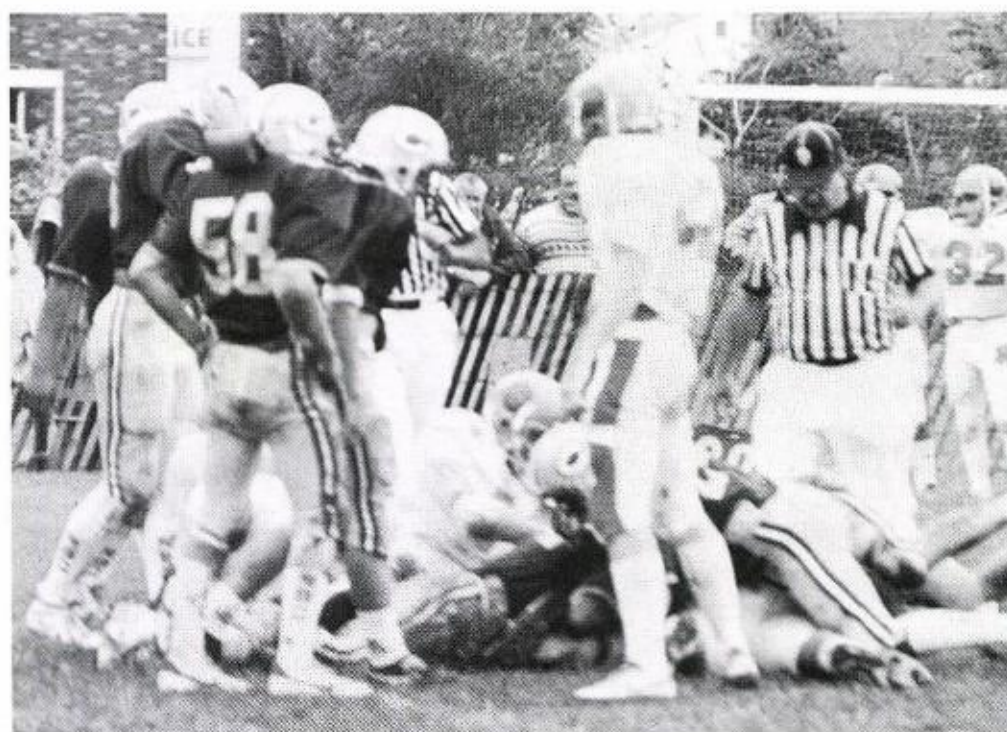

After losing in the Parochial A semifinal to Holy Spirit, the Caseys bounced back and won the Thanksgiving Day game against Rumson, 10-7.

The football team owes much of its success to Head Coach Mr. Louis Montanaro and his excellent coaching staff of Mr. Pat Farmer, Mr. Stephen Lake, Mr. Pat McGann, Mr. Tony Flego, Mr. Joe Pagano, Mr. Carrol Cook, and Mr. Wally Case. Without their dedication and the dedication of the players, the 1985 season would not have been such a success.

Twist and Shout

Led by captains Eileen Logan, Patti Carlo, and Sharon Homa, the Casey cheerleaders brought much excitement and enthusiasm to the football games. Rain or shine, they supported the football team and helped to create spirit among the spectators. Not only did they cheer at games, but these spirited Caseys also participated in pep rallies and the Halloween parade in Red Bank.

The 1985 Marching Band once again led the Casey fans to a season filled with spirit and enthusiasm. Not only during entertaining half-time shows but also during enthusiastic activities such as pep rallies and parades, the Casey band had a successful year. Adding to that success was their grand victory at the Wall Township Competition. This year’s Casey Band has had a major part in lifting everyone’s Casey spirit!

Terrific Twirlers

The 1985 Red Bank Catholic Twirlers helped lead cheering for our championship football team. The girl's on the squad practiced hard everyday and always did the best they could. It may seem like twirling is all play and no work, but it takes a lot of hard work and practice to be good. Congratulations go to Mary Jo Alexander for her performance and leadership of the squad.

Top: Mary Jo Alexander

Special thanks to Mr. Tom Bender for his remarkable accomplishments conducting the band. He is to be commended for his hard work and leadership which have earned him the respect and admiration of not only his musicians but all who have heard him play.

The RBC girl's tennis team, coached by Mr. James Marley, had another outstanding season. The hard work and long hours the girls put in paid off with yet another All-Groups State Title. Along with the state title, the Caseys also won the Shore Conference Championship.

Leading the team this year was junior Regina Fagan. She proved to be a true team leader. Missy O'Neill came in to the second singles position. Under pressure, Missy was a definite key player as she surpassed Catrina Rolley for the state title. Cathy Decker ended her second year at third singles with a 52-2 record. The RBC doubles tandems of Pat O'Byrne — Jeanie O'Connor and Bea Strickland —

Katie Hall solidified the team as both were undefeated for two years. Jeanie O'Connor topped her fourth year at first doubles with a 101-1 record. Neither Pat O'Byrne nor Bea Strickland ever lost at RBC. Other supporting seniors are Carolyn Desmond, Alida Coe, Michelle Bourgoyne, and Kim Valeriani.

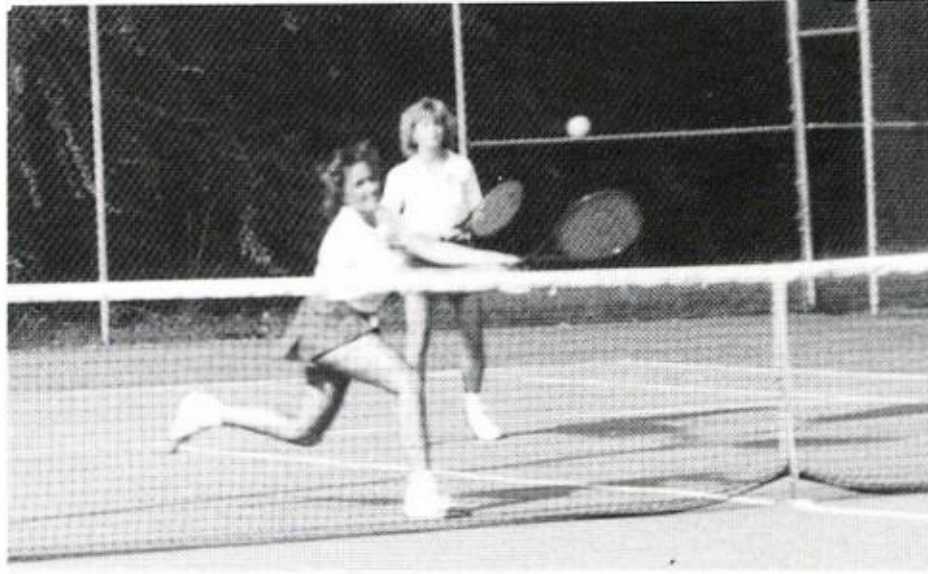

Throughout the season, they showed Casey team spirit. They are truly a team RBC can be proud of.

ACADEMICS

Ready for

The 1985-86 Executive Board rightfully deserved to emphasize the "student" in Student Council. With the absence of a moderator, the board was still able to carry out its responsibilities. The Executive Board oversees the level officers as well as organizes school activities. Such functions include: the Homecoming, Computer Dating Services, Pep Rallies, and the Valentine's Day Dance. There were many successful activities to benefit charity, such as the Thanksgiving Food Drive, Blood Drive, and Halloween Dance, which was one of the top-ten fundraising projects in New Jersey. The Executive Board is to be commended for its impressive year!

Executive Board: Mary Lewis, Alida Coe, Pat O'Byrne, Sharon Homa

the Challenge

Membership in the National Honor Society is one of the highest honors a high school student may be awarded. This organization, under the guidance of Mrs. Griffin, strives to give a meaning to the nation's goals in promoting leadership, participation in community service, recognition in scholarly achievements, and development of character. The student is also denoted by a point requirement in various activities, and then voted in by a selected faculty committee.

Raising

Under the direct assistance of Mrs. Casadonte, the Literary Magazine provides a chance for students to exhibit their creative works in prose, poetry, and art. It is open to all students and is published in conjunction with the yearbook. This annually-published collection of artistic works gives the students a chance to display their pieces in a professional manner. These pieces receive critical reviews from various publishing angles and are revised, if necessary, to create a more polished look. Both Mrs. Casadonte and the students work very hard to realize this accomplishment.

Literary Magazine: L. Devan, A. Rathmacher, M. Lane, D. Crispino, A. Karas, L. Cruz, L. Drayton, P. O'Byren, J. Vignolini, B. Leon, M. Black, M. VanPatten, Q. King, C. Durst, S. Ryan, M. Jones

Math Club: N. Scala, C. Zenakis, F. Centafonte, D. Stamos, G. Bareccha, J. Barrett, B. Little, C. Cleary, Mrs. Gill

The Math Club is designed for students who wish to make use of their mathematic skills outside of class time. It is under the direction of new teachers Mrs. Gill and Miss Fitzpatrick. The club is in the Varsity level of the Catholic High School League. Students take diagnostic tests in which challenging problems are met and mathematical procedures are reviewed and introduced.

Interest

Students requesting additional help in mathematics may obtain a tutor from the Student Tutoring Club, which is run under the guidance of Miss Jordan. This club is unique in that it provides the opportunity for the student tutors to share their knowledge and experience with other students. The Student Tutoring Club proves beneficial to all involved.

Leading

Homeroom Presidents are the important link between the Student Council and the Student Body. Level officers depend upon them to keep their homerooms informed on the Student Council agenda as well as keeping the council informed on students' views and ideas. The Homeroom Presidents are also a great help in assisting in level activities, including hall decorating contests and dance preparation.

Investments

The past four years developed many of our diverse interests and talents. While we invested our hard work and discipline, together we shared in the capital gains. We shared in a return to nationalism as we rocked Bruce Springsteen's "Born In the USA", witnessed the restoration of the Statue of Liberty, and applauded our school play "Of Thee I Sing". Together we witnessed new administrations in Haiti and the Phillippines, while at home we welcomed 17 new faculty members to RBC. We rejoiced in the Reagan-Gorbachev meeting and mourned the loss of our Challenger heroes and our first teacher in space. Terrorism overwhelmed the world and hit home with the cancellation of our traditional Europe trips. We were consoled by the warmth and giving of Live-Aid and our own "RBC for Africa". Medicine continued a battle with AIDS while RBC plunged into the fitness craze. We crooned over the "brat pack" and Madonna, as we donned black lace, moussed our hair, and doubled-pierced our ears. We went back in time with the return of the crew cut and bobbed hair, and blasted into the future with the Uranus Sattelite. We marveled over the Bear's Super Bowl shuffle as we celebrated our own champions of Hacky-Sack. We experienced many changes these four years, within ourselves and in the world around us. Our investment at Red Bank Catholic remained secure and our interest accumulated. We feel as though we have experienced it all — but more importantly we have experienced it together.

Steve
 It's been a pretty good year - I guess.
 We had fun, didn't we? You're such a sweetie + a cutie - stay that way, O.K.
 I hope I see ya over the summer hopefully! If not, I'll see ya next year and I hope we are in more classes than we were this year. Don't forget Mr. Marley and the fun times we had in his class!
 Love ya always,
 Kris S.
